ONE DOLLAR SUBSCRIPTIONS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

New York, April 25, 1864.

Some little time ago an offer was made by the friends of General McClellan in the army to raise a fund (exclusively from the army) for the purpose of securing his release. This offer was received with so much interest that the powers that be at once suspended it. The Washington has again been put upon an honest effort to attain the same object. Allow me to present the following: That demand a sum for the purpose of purchasing such a reward, his friends will not be ashamed to present him—such a one to be selected by a competent committee, and to be paid him in full if he can be secured. The amount will be considered sufficient for the purpose that the balance to be donated to the Soldiers' General Hospital Fund. This will enable his many friends, both civil and military, to contribute their mite, and in any event they will be assured that the amount received will be applied to the best use. I trust you will give this matter some care for think about a receiver.

ANTHEM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

New York, April 25, 1864.

Send me to suggest through the proper channels a reward that would do credit to the donor and honor the General if he were permitted to draw it from the pocket of the Government. This is done in all good faith to do our duty to our country. It is a good idea to have a reward in the city for contraband, seeing there is no one individual to have but one vote, and for which he shall pay twenty-five cents, and we can present "Little Mac" with a sword costing $25.000 in less than thirty days.
